NEW FILM FROM THE DIRECTOR OF "ORLANDO"

Pablo Veron is one of the most famous names in today's tango world. He gained international fame as the choreographer and the leading star of the 1997 film "The Tango Lesson" which charmed the public all over the world and won the Ombu de Oro, the first prize for best film at the International Film Festival in Argentina. His more than 20 year long career as a tango dancer, choreographer and teacher includes performances in numerous shows, musicals, movies, concerts and theatre plays and participation in many prestigious international tango festivals.

A key figure of the tango renaissance, Pablo Veron is recognized for his unique, innovative style that links the authentic tango to the sensitivity of the modern times. Proud to share his talent and experience, he continues to teach tango all over the world.

Pablo Veron will be conducting intensive workshops exclusively for beginners, intermediate/advanced dancers in a progressive manner.
